Packing too heavy is irresponsible

Anna Vister | Founder, owner & creative director

It all began with a snowboard season in the Alps, bags overflowing – and the realization that packing too heavy is irresponsible. The world's most multiFUNctional base layer was born, combining an innovative integrated neck warmer, recycled fabrics, groundbreaking tech and progressive style.

Founded in 2009 by snowboarder and fashion designer Anna Vister, we challenge and expand the perception of how multiFUNctional base layers can be, allowing you to seamlessly transition between any activity. Lower your footprint by buying less but better and be ready for any adventure with a bag as light as your conscience.

We are a family-owned, values-driven, and independent. Operating from our snow fashion house in the mountain resort of Åre, Sweden, our vision is Less stuff, more adventure, through multiFUNctional clothing.
